Lucky-step, you lucky step to success!

100% Inspection

We have our QC department. And our QC carry out inspection during the mass production. And there is one person on the assembly line to check the quality of each pair of shoes, like cleanness, stick length and so on. After all the mass production finished, we have another QC to carry out the second inspection and then issue the QC report. Two inspections just to make sure that each pair is OK. Please check our QC report below:
